Understanding Tuition and Fees

Saint Louis University students with full-time time status will pay full-time tuition and fees while students with less than full-time time-status will pay part-time tuition and fees. See SLU's Time Status policy (<https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/academic-policies-procedures/time-status/>) for more information.

Students enrolled in fall and spring courses are assessed tuition and fees associated with their primary college, school or degree-granting center, regardless of the course or courses taken. Students enrolled in summer courses are assessed tuition and fees associated with the college, school or degree-granting center of the course, regardless of their primary college, school or degree-granting center.

Students registered for courses at Saint Louis University remain financially obligated for a course unless and until they drop it by the prescribed deadlines for dropping and adding courses (<https://www.slu.edu/registrar/register/registration-dates.php>).

Student Financial Responsibility (<https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/student-financial-services/student-financial-responsibility/>)

All tuition and fees listed above are for the fall and spring semesters unless otherwise noted.

Additional information on Miscellaneous Fees (<https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/student-financial-services/fees/>)

Additional information on Summer Tuition (<https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/student-financial-services/tuition-summer/>)

† Undergraduate students enrolling in more than 18 credits are considered in an overload and additional tuition will be charged at the standard per-credit rate for all additional credits above 18 credits in fall or spring. See the Overload of Fall/Spring Credits (Undergraduate) (<https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/academic-policies-procedures/overload-credits/>) policy for more information.
