

GREEK, MINOR

Saint Louis University offers a minor in the ancient Greek language and its literature. Ancient Greek classes at SLU are small and interdisciplinary, encouraging open and collaborative dialogue among students and instructors. Our courses concentrate on reading culturally formative writings in their original Greek, focusing not only on well-known classical texts but also ones written in Koine and Byzantine Greek.

Requirements

Students must complete a minimum total of 15 credits for the minor.

| Code | Title | Credits |
|--|-------------------------------|-----------|
| Required Courses | | |
| GK 1010 | Reading Greek I | 3 |
| GK 1020 | Reading Greek II | 3 |
| GK 2010 | Intermediate Greek Lang & Lit | 3 |
| Greek Elective Courses | | |
| Students also take 6 credits of courses either 3000-level or higher in Greek with the Greek attribute. Examples of such courses, which are commonly taught, are: | | 6 |
| GK 4360 | Xenophon | |
| GK 4520 | Sophocles | |
| GK 4560 | Euripides | |
| Total Credits | | 15 |

Continuation Standards

Students with a minor in Greek must maintain a 2.0 GPA in courses required for the minor.

Contact Us

For additional information about this program, please contact theology@slu.edu or call 314-977-2881.