

FINANCE, M.S.

Saint Louis University's Master of Science in Finance program provides students with a comprehensive, state-of-the-art education in finance, incorporating both traditional financial theories and modern technological approaches. The SLU program has been meticulously designed keeping in mind both the ever-changing demands of the finance industry and the faculty expertise in the finance department.

Admission Requirements

The Chaifetz School uses a holistic admissions approach to carefully evaluate all applicants, taking into account every aspect of their application. While an undergraduate degree is required for admission, a business background is not.

Requirements

Prior to the start of the program

The Finance M.S. requires students to have an understanding of principles in accounting and economics. Students without sufficient undergraduate background in these topics should take ACCT 5010 Accounting for Managers (3 cr) and ECON 5010 Economics for Managers (3 cr) prior to the start of the M.S. program. This requirement may be waived for students having related academic coursework or relevant work experience, subject to the approval of the program director or the department chair. If the student needs to take ACCT 5010 Accounting for Managers (3 cr) and/or ECON 5010 Economics for Managers (3 cr), these courses will not count towards the 30 credits required for the M.S.
