

HIGHER EDUCATION ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

Leadership

J. Mark Pousson, Ph.D.

Program director

Overview

Saint Louis University's higher education administration programs prepare higher education professionals to excel in their chosen vocational paths and give back to the greater community. Each program is individually tailored to complement unique interests and professional aspirations. These programs combine theory with practical insights provided by SLU faculty, who are seasoned professors and administrators.

About the Faculty

Faculty members take a genuine interest in students. With expansive backgrounds as research scholars and higher education administration practitioners, they advise and mentor students in their current or future vocational paths as higher education administration leaders and/or research scholars.

Programs

- Disability Administration in Higher Education, Post-Baccalaureate Certificate (<https://catalog.slu.edu/colleges-schools/education/higher-education-administration/disability-administration-higher-education/>)
- Higher Education Administration, Ph.D. (<https://catalog.slu.edu/colleges-schools/education/higher-education-administration/higher-education-administration-phd/>)
- Higher Education and Student Affairs Administration, M.A. (<https://catalog.slu.edu/colleges-schools/education/higher-education-administration/higher-education-student-affairs-administration/>)