

IGNATIANT LEADERSHIP, MICROCREDENTIAL

Saint Louis University's Ignatian leadership microcredential is an undergraduate, six-credit hour, service-learning, two-course sequence: SERV 1000 Ignatian Spirituality and Service (0,3 cr) and SERV 3000 Ignatian Leadership and Service (0,3 cr). Both courses are part of the Ignatian service minor (<https://catalog.slu.edu/colleges-schools/philosophy-letters/ignatian-service-minor/>) and related coursework (<https://www.slu.edu/philosophy-and-letters/center-for-ignatian-service/coursework-and-minor.php>).

SLU's College of Philosophy and Letters delivers both courses and The Center for Ignatian Service (<https://www.slu.edu/philosophy-and-letters/center-for-ignatian-service/>) provides all administration to run the service-learning program, e.g., all transportation to/from service sites, onboarding, and background clearances. Syllabi for each SERV course is available upon request. The center augments SLU's Catholic, Jesuit educational heritage and mission by offering service-learning courses that help students integrate SLU's core curriculum while helping end cycles of poverty in St. Louis. The center's motto is Help transform a city as the city transforms your education.
